

A LIFE OF MAKING MEMORIES

Finders & Keepers Safaris

Journeys & Experiences — 2026 Collection

A journey should feel like it was made for you.

Finders & Keepers Safaris was built on a simple conviction: that the best journeys are not chosen from a catalogue, but built around the person taking them. Every itinerary we put together starts with a conversation, not a template.

We work across East and Southern Africa and beyond — wildlife, coastline, culture and quiet — pairing each traveller with the guides, camps and routing that actually suit them, rather than the ones that are easiest to sell.

This collection is a short introduction to who guides you, the ways to travel with us, why everything is priced as one figure, and a handful of the destinations our guests return to again and again. Where something here catches your eye, we are one conversation away from building it properly.

“The safari that stays with you is never the one with the most stops — it is the one built at the pace you actually wanted to move at.”

WHO YOU TRAVEL WITH

The guide matters more than the itinerary.

Any collection can list the Maasai Mara, Sabi Sand or the Serengeti migration. What actually changes a safari is who is sitting beside you when the vehicle stops — and whether they know why it stopped.

Our guides are naturalists, historians, trackers and storytellers, many with decades in the field. They read the bush like a book — tracks, alarm calls, the subtle shift of wind — and know the camp managers, pilots and community rangers who make it all possible, by name.

Naturalists, not drivers

Guiding is a specialism here, not a job description attached to the steering wheel.

One journey architect, start to finish

A single person plans your trip and stays reachable by phone, email or WhatsApp throughout it.

Lodges we have slept in

Every property we recommend, we have stayed in and vetted ourselves first.

Five ways to move through it.

Tailor-Made Journeys

Built entirely from a blank page — your pace, your interests, your dates — shaped around a brief only you could give us.

Small Group Journeys

Guided departures for the people you actually want to travel with: friends, family, colleagues, or a group of strangers who won't stay strangers for long.

Solo Travel

A private guide and vehicle as standard, and a pace that answers to nobody but you.

By Road

The most complete way to see the ground in between the highlights — stopovers, terrain, and the whole wild in front of the windscreen.

Fly-In Safaris

Light aircraft linking camp to camp, reaching the remote concessions a full day's drive could never justify.

Every way we travel, under one roof.

Beyond how you travel, what the journey is built around — planned in-house, by the same guides and journey architects, priced as one figure before you commit to anything.

Family Safaris

Every generation entertained, genuinely relaxing for the adults too.

Couples Escapes

Honeymoons, anniversaries and quiet weeks designed for two.

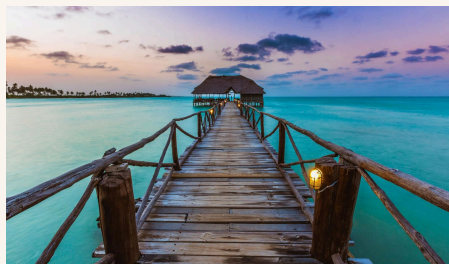

Private Jets

Charter your own aircraft and move on your own schedule.

Helicopter Tours

Landscapes that only resolve from above, landing where no road goes.

Beach & Islands

The right way to finish a safari, or a journey on its own.

Luxury Lodges

Camps and hotels curated for location, access and the people who run them.

One figure. No fine print.

Cheap safaris cut corners — hidden fees, mediocre lodges, guides who are just drivers. We price everything up front instead, because a collection like this only means something if the number in it is the number you actually pay.

01

Everything is included

Every meal, every drink, every activity, every park fee, every transfer, every visa, every gratuity — quoted once, before you commit.

02

No surprises on arrival

The price we quote is the price you pay. No fine print, no optional extras disguised as essentials once you land.

03

One call fixes anything

Your journey architect is reachable throughout — a delayed flight or a lost bag gets solved quietly, not billed separately.

04

Value, not just a low price

We are rarely the cheapest quote. We are consistently the one guests don't second-guess once they're home.

Where our guests keep going back.

Kenya

The Maasai Mara and its conservancies, Amboseli under Kilimanjaro, and Laikipia's private ranches — the classic safari ground, and still the best introduction to it.

Tanzania & the Serengeti

The Serengeti's migration, Ngorongoro's crater floor, and the beaches of Zanzibar close enough to add on afterward without a second flight home.

And the ground beyond it.

Botswana & Namibia

The Okavango Delta by water and by air, the Kalahari's black-maned lions, and the Namib's dunes rising straight out of the desert floor.

The Indian Ocean

Zanzibar, Seychelles and Mauritius — the right way to finish a safari, or reason enough on their own for the flight.
