Overview

A sophisticated slow-paced itinerary focusing entirely on luxury fine dining, sacred temple architecture, royal palaces, and elite clifftop estates. Designed for clients who want to experience Bali's deepest cultural heritage without adventure activities. This circuit highlights the 16th-century stone courtyard architecture of Ubud Palace, the iconic floating temple of Pura Ulun Danu Beratan, the royal water gardens of Tirta Gangga, and the ancient Uluwatu Temple perched on a 70-metre cliff edge. A private luxury superyacht delivers guests to the Uluwatu Peninsula for the dramatic Kecak Fire Dance at sunset, followed by a candle-lit seafood bonfire dinner on Jimbaran Bay sand.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Ubud Palace private historian tour: 16th-century stone pavilions still housing the Ubud royal family
- Pura Ulun Danu Beratan: the iconic floating temple with multi-tiered meru shrines reflected perfectly in the glassy volcanic lake
- Private superyacht charter south to the Bukit Peninsula with Uluwatu Temple on its 70-metre cliff visible from the ocean
- Jimbaran Bay private candle-lit seafood bonfire dinner right on the sand with the sound of the Indian Ocean waves
- Tirta Empul sacred water temples: locals engaged in purification rituals in crystal-clear stone pools for over a thousand years
- Tirta Gangga Royal Water Palace: majestic stone bridges, stepping stones, and giant koi ponds built by the King of Karangasem in 1946
- Kecak Fire Dance in the clifftop temple amphitheatre: chanting voices and flames against the setting sun over the Indian Ocean
- Master Balinese sandstone sculptor private workshop and traditional gamelan music performance in a garden courtyard
