Overview

Crafted for luxury travellers who crave dramatic desert-mountain contrast without the distances of the deep Sahara. This slow-paced road journey pairs the energy of Marrakech with the absolute serenity of the rocky Agafay Desert and the high pine-scented valleys of the Atlas Range. Guests check into top-tier wellness properties including Kasbah Tamadot — Sir Richard Branson's Virgin Limited Edition mountain fortress. Signature highlights include riding camels across desert ridges at sunset, dining inside a candle-lit stone canyon, a hot-air balloon over the Atlas foothills, and a deeply immersive Amazigh argan oil and bread-making experience.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Private camel safari across the rugged Agafay plains as the sun sets over the distant snow-capped Atlas Mountains
- Hot-air balloon sunrise over the Atlas foothills with a farm-to-table breakfast in an open mountain meadow on landing
- Hidden Ourika Valley waterfalls with private naturalist guide and Barbary macaque encounters
- Private open-air star deck dinner over mountain valleys with twinkling Berber village lights below
- Open-air dinner inside a secluded stone canyon lit by hundreds of floating lanterns around a roaring central fire
- Kasbah Tamadot: Sir Richard Branson's ultra-luxury mountain fortress with heated infinity pool and Atlas panoramas
- Argan and rose oil Moroccan hammam spa at Kasbah Tamadot using organic local ingredients
- Exclusive Amazigh women's cooperative — argan oil production, bread-making masterclass, and mountain folk music

The Itinerary

01

MARRAKECH

Day 1 | Arrival in Marrakech — The Red City Oasis

VIP tarmac handling at Marrakech Menara Airport. Transfer to the world-renowned Royal Mansour — ultra-luxurious retreats with private multi-storey riads and lush gardens. Early arrivals enjoy a private city tour: the vibrant Jemaa el-Fnaa square (UNESCO World Heritage site), the Koutoubia Mosque with its stunning 77-metre minaret. Intimate orientation dinner at the hotel.
