Overview

Designed for luxury travellers who want to explore the pristine turquoise waters, hidden caves, and jellyfish-filled coves of Siargao and Bucas Grande. This itinerary connects the world-famous island-hopping sites — Naked Island, Daku Island, and Guyam Island — with the hidden gem of Sohoton Cove: a secret, labyrinthine network of turquoise water caverns where millions of stingless neon-blue jellyfish live. Guests stay at Nay Palad Hideaway — the finest luxury property on the island. High-end highlights include cliff jumping into a sapphire ocean basin at Magkukuob Cave, paddleboarding through the turquoise channels of Sugba Lagoon, and walking along the iconic Cloud 9 boardwalk watching professional surfers conquer hollow tube waves.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Naked Island: a completely bare blindingly white sandbar rising from the deep blue ocean — one of the most striking sights in the Philippines
- Sohoton Cove: swimming among millions of soft velvety stingless neon-blue jellyfish pulsing gently through turquoise water
- Magkukuob Cave: climbing internal rock formations to execute a thrilling 15-foot cliff jump into a deep sapphire ocean basin
- Cloud 9 boardwalk: watching professional surfers conquer the most legendary hollow tube waves in all of Southeast Asia
- Daku Island: a luxury white-linen champagne brunch inside a private over-water reef pavilion in the coconut palm grove
- Hagukan Cave: water glowing neon luminescent blue when splashed against the cave walls — a completely surreal natural phenomenon
- Sugba Lagoon private pontoon sundowner: flat glassy turquoise channels, schools of juvenile barracudas below, cocktails at sunset
- Nay Palad Hideaway: Siargao's most celebrated luxury hideaway with perched ocean villas and extraordinary coastal privacy
