Overview

Designed for luxury travellers who want to explore the dramatic limestone karsts, pristine lakes, and hidden marine sanctuaries of the Calamianes Archipelago. This itinerary connects the world-famous Kayangan Lake, Barracuda Lake, and Twin Lagoons of Coron with the hidden gem of the Busuanga Dugong Sanctuary — a secret, highly protected coastal bay where guests observe the incredibly rare prehistoric Dugong grazing on sea grass in total privacy. High-end highlights include snorkelling over WWII Japanese shipwrecks, exploring the pristine Lusong Coral Garden — considered the finest reef in the Calamianes — and the powder-white beaches and stingray-filled waters of Malcapuya Island.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Kayangan Lake: famed as the cleanest water in Asia — surreal underwater limestone rock needles in crystal-clear freshwater
- Barracuda Lake thermocline: the dramatic volcanic sensation of water changing instantly from cool fresh to hot 38°C saltwater
- Twin Lagoons submerged rock tunnel: swimming at low tide through a completely submerged limestone passage into the hidden inner basin
- Boat deck sundowner inside the quiet limestone lagoon walls: chilled premium wine in one of the most serene settings in the Philippines
- Busuanga Dugong Sanctuary exclusive access: snorkelling quietly alongside highly endangered prehistoric sea cows feeding on sea grass
- Sangat Island Skeleton Wreck: a 25-metre WWII Japanese supply ship 5 metres below the surface, now a brain coral reef
- Malcapuya Island champagne sandbar breakfast before any public boats arrive — powder-white sand, blue-spotted stingrays below
- Lusong Coral Garden: thousands of square metres of staghorn and table corals — the most pristine reef in the Calamianes

Kayangan Lake's crystal needles, Barracuda Lake's volcanic thermocline, submerged rock tunnels, and a prehistoric Dugong tracking safari
