Overview

This journey has been designed around a single idea: that adults and children should both have the time of their lives. Universal Studios for the rides. Singapore Zoo for the animals. Adventure Cove Waterpark for the splash. Supertree Grove for the wonder. And then one night in Kuala Lumpur with the Petronas Towers reflected in your hotel window — a perfect conclusion that adds a second country to the journey without adding fatigue. Seven nights in a luxury city hotel, two nights on Sentosa Island, one night overlooking the Petronas Towers. Every day built for the whole family.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Universal Studios Singapore — a dedicated full-day family adventure of rides, shows, and themed entertainment
- Adventure Cove Waterpark — wave pools, snorkelling lagoons, lazy rivers and water slides for the whole family
- Kuala Lumpur extension — one night at Traders Hotel with direct views of the iconic Petronas Twin Towers
- Sentosa Island beach days — cable cars, Skyline Luge, beach clubs, and water play zones for children
- Singapore Zoo open rainforest habitats — close animal encounters for children and adults in natural environments
- Gardens by the Bay — the illuminated Supertree Grove that genuinely astounds children and adults equally
- Jewel Changi Airport — the world's tallest indoor waterfall and a canopy forest that delights every age
- Cultural Singapore — Chinatown, Little India, and Haji Lane bringing the city's multicultural soul to life

Singapore and Kuala Lumpur — adults and children both in their element, every day

The Itinerary

01

SINGAPORE — HOTEL MI ROCHOR

Day 1 | Arrival — Marina Bay Family Introduction

Private airport transfers escort the family to Hotel Mi Rochor. After check-in and rest, the evening begins with a relaxed exploration around Marina Bay. Families enjoy peaceful waterfront walks before visiting Gardens by the Bay — the illuminated Supertrees, indoor waterfalls, and futuristic domes create genuinely magical experiences for children encountering Singapore for the first time. Family dinner overlooking Singapore's skyline closes the first evening.

Day 2 | Marina Bay Sands SkyPark, Merlion Park & Singapore Flyer

Marina Bay Sands SkyPark for panoramic family views across the city — children and adults alike are astounded by the scale of what spreads out below. Merlion Park for iconic family photography. Luxury malls and interactive attractions around Marina Bay. At sunset, the Singapore Flyer — the enormous observation wheel rising above the city for breathtaking aerial views as Singapore transforms into a sea of lights below.

SINGAPORE — HOTEL MI ROCHOR

Day 3 | Universal Studios Singapore — A Full Family Adventure Day

The entire day is dedicated to Universal Studios Singapore — one of the best theme parks in Southeast Asia. Jurassic Park water adventure, Transformers, Revenge of the Mummy, Hollywood Boulevard, and the full range of age-appropriate family rides and attractions. Live stunt shows, character encounters, themed dining, and the particular joy of a group of people who genuinely love each other experiencing something extraordinary together.

Day 4 | Sentosa Island — Beach & Family Adventure Day

Transfer to Sentosa Island and check-in at Village Hotel Sentosa. Sentosa Sensoryscape's interactive gardens and glowing installations. Skyline Luge racing down the island's purpose-built tracks — suitable for children and adults. Cable car rides. Beach club relaxation where adults enjoy tropical drinks while children splash in dedicated water play zones. Sunset views over the Andaman Sea from Sentosa's western coastline.

Day 5 | Singapore Zoo & River Wonders — Family Wildlife Day

Singapore Zoo's open rainforest habitats allow children to encounter exotic animals at close range in natural environments — orangutans in the trees overhead, white tigers pacing open grassland, African elephants in river habitats. River Wonders follows with giant pandas, piranha pools, and immersive tropical river ecosystems. Educational and genuinely exciting. Relaxed family dining in the evening.

Day 6 | Adventure Cove Waterpark & Sentosa Beach Leisure

Adventure Cove Waterpark: wave pools, snorkelling lagoons where tropical fish swim around you, lazy rivers, rainbow reef, and water slides of every kind. One of the most energetic and joyful family days in the entire package. Throughout the day: tropical beach relaxation, photography along Sentosa's coastline, and the particular satisfaction of a family that has spent a day doing nothing but having fun together.

Day 7 | Jewel Changi Airport & Orchard Road

Jewel Changi Airport's Rain Vortex indoor waterfall — 40 metres of cascading water inside a vast glass dome — alongside canopy walks, an indoor forest, interactive play zones, and luxury retail. Families are consistently astonished. The afternoon continues at Orchard Road for shopping, dining, dessert cafés, and the kind of easy lifestyle experiences that Singapore does better than almost anywhere else.

Day 8 | Cultural Singapore — Chinatown, Little India & Haji Lane

A guided family exploration of Singapore's colourful cultural districts. Chinatown's Buddha Tooth Relic Temple and heritage shophouses. Little India's markets, temples, and extraordinary colour and scent. Haji Lane's murals, boutiques, and creative energy. Children encounter Singapore's extraordinary multicultural identity through street performances, cultural food, and the kind of lived street-level experience that no theme park can replicate.

Day 9 | Malaysia Extension — Kuala Lumpur Arrival & Petronas Towers

A short regional flight to Kuala Lumpur. Check-in at Traders Hotel Kuala Lumpur — one of the city's most celebrated addresses, with direct views of the iconic Petronas Twin Towers from your window. The towers were the tallest buildings in the world when completed and remain among the most photographed structures on earth. The family spends the afternoon exploring luxury malls, skyline cafés, and the cultural attractions surrounding the tower complex.
