Overview

A slow-paced road and dhow journey focusing entirely on Zanzibar's under-the-radar natural treasures, hidden freshwater caves, and the calm mangrove lagoons of Chwaka Bay. Designed for luxury travellers who want to escape the high-traffic commercial centres and discover the island's most pristine and secluded locations. Guests cruise Kizimkazi Bay for wild dolphins, explore the limestone chambers and natural pools of Kuza Cave, glide through the calm mangrove channels of Jozani Chwaka Bay, and complete a private Safari Blue snorkelling expedition. The Michamvi Peninsula provides days of absolute beach isolation at two of the finest clifftop resorts in Zanzibar.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Wild dolphin morning dhow safari in Kizimkazi Bay: humpback and bottlenose dolphins surfacing alongside the vessel
- Private carpet-and-majlis tent cave valley sundowner: cocktails and spiced fruits on a rocky ridge facing the Kuza valley at sunset
- The Rock Restaurant private crowd-free lunch: the most iconic dining experience in East Africa on its lone coral rock outcrop
- Private Swahili acoustic band beachside bonfire dinner with clove, cinnamon, and coconut oil spice-infused massage
- Kuza Cave sacred limestone cavern: crystalline subterranean freshwater pools used for centuries of spiritual healing
- Jozani Chwaka Bay private dhow: calm mangrove channels, rare bird colonies, and an elevated wooden deck breakfast
- Safari Blue private dhow expedition: hidden coral reefs, natural mangrove lagoon swimming, and a sandbar gourmet seafood lunch
- Kanga and Kitenge textile design private masterclass: block-printing heritage and the poetic proverbs of Swahili fabrics
