Overview

Zanzibar's flagship marine itinerary — engineered to integrate luxury beachfront stays with the wild dolphin bays of the south, pairing the island's most famous culinary and environmental wonders. From the ancient coral-stone labyrinths of Stone Town to the sacred subterranean pools of Kuza Cave and the iconic Rock Restaurant perched on a coral outcrop in the ocean. Guests explore Stone Town's carved wooden doors, walk through Jozani's dense mahogany forests to view rare Red Colobus monkeys, and swim alongside wild dolphin pods in Kizimkazi Bay. An ocean floor sea walk, a disappearing sandbar breakfast, and a luxury catamaran sunset cruise complete the circuit.

HIGHLIGHTS

- Private historian leads exploration of Stone Town's Old Arab Fort and House of Wonders — once the tallest building in East Africa
- Jozani Chwaka Bay National Park: rare Zanzibar Red Colobus Monkeys leaping through the mahogany canopy — found only on this island
- Disappearing sandbar white-linen breakfast buffet set up by your private crew — surrounded by turquoise water rising around you
- Kuza Cave sacred subterranean freshwater pools: swimming in crystalline limestone caverns used for spiritual healing for centuries
- Rooftop sundowner: premium cocktails and Swahili spiced canapés watching the sun dip into the Indian Ocean behind old minarets
- Dawn dhow to Kizimkazi Bay: wild humpback and bottlenose dolphins surfacing alongside the vessel
- Ocean floor Sea Walk along the Kizimkazi barrier reef: neon parrotfish and clownfish, no diving experience required
- The Rock Restaurant private crowd-free lunch on its coral outcrop and a Michamvi beach seafood bonfire dinner

The Itinerary

01

STONE TOWN

Day 1 | Arrival in Zanzibar — Sultanate Elegance

VIP tarmac greeting at Abeid Amani Karume International Airport. Private luxury SUV into the heart of the historic capital. Check-in at Park Hyatt Zanzibar — an elegant oceanfront palace blending Swahili architecture with modern luxury. Stunning Indian Ocean views, intricate coral-stone architecture, and the serene beauty of the historic harbour. Early arrivals explore the narrow winding streets of Stone Town with their carved wooden doors, bustling markets, and historic waterfront. Welcome dinner at the hotel.

Day 2 | Ancient Coral-Stone Labyrinths — Rooftop Sundowner

Private historian leads exploration of the carved wooden doors, coral-stone alleys, and historic bastions of the Old Arab Fort and the House of Wonders — a 19th-century palace once the tallest building in East Africa. The rich history of Zanzibar: from its days as a centre of the spice and slave trades to its role as a cultural crossroads. The historic Freddie Mercury Museum dedicated to the Queen frontman born in Stone Town. Premium cocktails and Swahili spiced canapés on a private rooftop terrace watching the sun dip into the Indian Ocean behind old minarets.

- Breakfast, Dinner

KIZIMKAZI

Day 3 | Jozani Forest Red Colobus Monkeys & Kizimkazi Check-In

Drive south through the island's interior to Jozani Chwaka Bay National Park. Wooden boardwalks through dense groundwater forests and saltwater mangroves. Close-up views of the rare endangered Zanzibar Red Colobus Monkeys leaping through the mahogany canopy — found only on this island. Other wildlife: Zanzibar duiker and exotic bird species. Afternoon: continue south to the Kizimkazi beachfront. Check-in at Le Saint Tropez Boutique Hotel.

KIZIMKAZI

Day 4 | Wild Dolphin Bays & Disappearing Sandbar Breakfast

Rising before dawn to board a handcrafted wooden dhow to explore Kizimkazi Bay. Pods of wild humpback and bottlenose dolphins surfacing alongside the boat — opportunity to swim alongside these magnificent creatures in their natural habitat. A luxury white-linen hot breakfast buffet set up by your private crew on a completely isolated sandbar that disappears entirely with the rising high tide — dining in absolute privacy with turquoise water stretching around you. Afternoon: shallow coral garden snorkelling.

KIZIMKAZI

Day 5 | Ocean Floor Sea Walk — Kizimkazi Barrier Reef

Donning a specialised high-tech diving helmet for an extraordinary Sea Walk Adventure — walking safely on the ocean floor along the Kizimkazi barrier reef. Looking up at schools of neon parrotfish, clownfish, and marine anemones without getting your hair wet. Your guide leads along the reef explaining the coral ecosystem ecology. A genuinely unique experience that requires no diving experience whatsoever. Afternoon: private beach spa massage at the resort.

MICHAMVI

Day 6 | Sacred Caves of Kuza & Michamvi Peninsula Check-In

Drive northeast to Jambiani to explore Kuza Cave — walking down stone steps into a prehistoric limestone cavern with cool humid air and echoing dripping water. Swimming in the crystalline subterranean freshwater pools traditionally revered by locals for their healing properties. The cultural significance of the cave for centuries of spiritual ceremonies explained. Afternoon: check-in at The Zawadi Hotel on the Michamvi Peninsula.

Day 7 | The Famous Floating Rock Restaurant & Michamvi Beach Bonfire

Travel to Pingwe beach to view The Rock Restaurant — an iconic thatched culinary outpost perched dramatically on a lone coral rock outcrop surrounded by rolling ocean waves. Private crowd-free lunch inside with waves lapping at the windows and panoramic ocean views. The day culminates in an elegant multi-course seafood bonfire dinner right on the beach sand back at the resort — warmed by a roaring bonfire and lit by hundreds of hanging lanterns.

MICHAMVI

Day 9 | Exclusive Swahili Dhow-BUILDER Cultural Tour — Taarab Music

Travel via private vehicle to a remote coastal enclave to interact privately with indigenous Swahili master dhow builders. The ancient mathematics and geometry used in hand-chiselling African teak timbers. Traditional cotton-and-fat caulking techniques. The art of building vessels that have sailed the Indian Ocean for centuries. Watching skilled artisans transform raw timber into beautifully crafted dhows. Private performance of historic maritime storytelling and local string Taarab music. Farewell dinner.
